

Screen International

“ It is an impressive showcase for Belgian actress Astrid Whettnall, whose almost constant presence gives the film a magnetic center. She conveys some genuine considerable emotional nuance, and proves quite magnetic with her weathered features and husky voice, making her something like the Belgian equivalent of Melissa Leo-put it this way, we can well believe her as tough mom on a mission; ”